

Organ donors are LIFE donors. What can YOU make possible?

Christine was a hardworking wife, mother of twins and small-business owner until the sudden onset of an autoimmune disease left her kidney function at only ten percent. A living kidney donor made it possible for Christine to regain her active life.

Learn more at DonateLife.net